Longevity Marketplace as Ecosystem Solution

Your offer will be presented on both Longevity Card and Longevity Club marketplaces.

An important solution provided by the Deep Knowledge Group is the integration of the Longevity Marketplace with the Longevity Banking Card, this will enable the following features of the Longevity Marketplace:

User will receive push notifications that provides main information about today's market structure.

The dashboard will also analyze client-input goals and needs, and connect them with service vendors that match and meet their specific needs.

In case if Longevity Banking card is used for operations on platform, the customers will also receive Longevity Reward Points.
